Champaign-Urbana Public Health District Board of Health Member Elected as President of National Organization

Mr. Andy Quarnstrom to serve as National Association of Local Boards of Health President

Champaign, IL – The Champaign-Urbana Public Health District (CUPHD) is honored to announce that Mr. Andy Quarnstrom, City of Champaign Township Supervisor and CUPHD Board of Health Secretary, assumed the office of President of the National Association of Local Boards of Health (NALBOH) on August 19, 2020 in a virtual ceremony. Mr. Quarnstrom has been on the NALBOH Board for over three years and his Presidency in NALBOH culminates his passion for public health and his interest to share his knowledge of public health board governance. NALBOH represents hundreds of boards of health throughout the United States and provides education, advocacy, and coordination to board of health members.

“I am very happy that Andy has been elected to this position. NALBOH is an organization that will greatly benefit from his enthusiasm, knowledge and fresh ideas. I am sure he will do an amazing job, while exchanging public health innovations with others from around the country,” said Julie Pryde, CUPHD Administrator.
